

foster parent survey results 2021

93%

of foster parents said that communication had been clear throughout the pandemic

93%

of responders are likely or very likely to recommend Fostering People

70%

of foster parents were still open to accept new referrals throughout the COVID pandemic

88%

of Fostering People have felt supported throughout COVID

90%

of responders are confident that Fostering People will make the right decisions to manage the pandemic effectively

41%

of foster parents said that they were available for emergency out of hours placements

90%

of foster parents agreed that the right tools, resources and support have been made available